Barbershop Quartet

Marlin Byrd and The Pine Tones, a barbershop quartet musical group, performed for the Rotary Club of Houghton Lake at the September 22, 2003 meeting.

The Pine Tones opened with three songs before they talked a little bit about themselves and about the quartet. The group is composed of a tenor, a lead, a bass, and a baritone. Marlin has been singing barbershop for 27 years, Dick has been singing barbershop for most of his life, Tom for 27 years, and Ed for about 8 years. They are part of a larger group out of Gaylord, Michigan.

The group then entertained us with "Darkness on the Delta" and a sing-along to "Let Me Call You Sweetheart".

Marlin announced that on Saturday, September 27th, quartets from all over the State will be competing in Gaylord. The group closed with one more song titled "Wait For the Light".

Rotary volunteerism kit helps tell children the Rotary story

Studies have shown that adults who are volunteers were introduced to volunteerism at a young age. To engender the volunteer spirit among today's youth, Rotary International has produced a kit to help Rotary members share their enthusiasm for volunteering by showing how their Rotary service has enriched their lives. . . .
