District Governor, Ross Conran, visited the Club on October 31, 2005. Mr. Conran reviewed eight issues that he is asking each club to address this year:

- 1) Water Management
- 2) Literacy & Education
- 3) Hunger & Health
- 4) Continuity
- 5) Cooperation
- 6) Public Relations
- 7) Membership
- 8) Foundation

His goals for the District, in addressing these eight issues, are to support the Seabrook Challenge; to provide 10,000 books to local libraries, literacy programs, or other avenues to support literacy; and for each club to develop one cooperative project with another club or organization or agency to deal with local hunger and health issues.

Ross' wife, Jerre, donated a children's book to the Club, on behalf of the Governor, Carl Wilhelm-Stenhammer, to use in the literacy project that we select this year.

Pictured above is President John Stark presenting a gift to the District Governor. It is a handpainted replica of the first 10 Tip-up-Town badges.
