Club, Community and District: Carolyn Krompetz read a resignation notice from Ron Homan. It stated that he is no longer employed at Glen's and is resigning from the club.

Park Update: Tom McNamara passed around a sign up sheet for the park work day. The work day is on Wednesday at 5pm, not Thursday. The merry-go-round will be put in place and the climbing dome needs to be anchored in.

Golf Outing: Please turn in raffle tickets by July 30th to Bob Pacella-either at his office or at the meeting. The drawing will take place on August 1st.

Fundraising: Stacey Barnes contacted Kirtland regarding "Tony & Tina's Wedding" production. Kirtland said they could do it and have ordered the script. They will not be available in the fall. We will have to schedule it for some time in February. Their fee is usually $500-$750. Dan McGregor recommended doing a wine/beer tasting event. Dan will check into it and update the club.

Program: Lois Byrd, Economic Coordinator for the Roscommon County Economic Development Corporation gave a brief history on how it has evolved. She informed us on their workings and projects they are involved in. They are in need of retired/semi-retired business people to assist with their mentoring program. The retiree will assist struggling business to try and help keep businesses from closing. They are also seeking grants and funding from outside/private sources. The 4 Mile Rd project is slated to start in November and they have received a lot of interest from potential businesses in the Houghton Lake and Roscommon areas if and when the project starts.

Their meetings are the last Thursday of the month at 8am. Anyone may attend-contact Lois if interested in attending.

Brag-for-a-buck: Debbie bragged that the Tip up Town float won 1st place in Lyon Township, 2nd place at the Bluegill Festival and Best Chamber Float at the Cherry Festival. Meeting adjourned at 1:00 pm.

Respectfully submitted, Jayme Shaw, Secretary
