Program: The Student Council from OLL gave an overview of the activities which take place in the school. They even included the history of the school and how it was founded. There are presently 94 students enrolled (54 K-8 and 40 Pre-school students) They host a number of fund raisers, the next one being a Christmas dinner on December 2 where the students will go from table to table singing Christmas Carols. They adopt a family at Christmas and are involved with helping a young boy, William from Nicaragua. Thank you students for an interesting presentation. The quartet entertained the Club with holiday music after the program.
