Volume 27, Issue 24      Dec 14, 2009

General Meeting of Rotary Club of Houghton Lake Held on December 7, 2009.

The meeting opened with Joel Sheltroun playing "O Beautiful", followed by the pledge and prayer.

Guests present: Tyler Stark, Kelly Julian and Taylor Akin.

Birthdays celebrated: Jim VanSice and Dick Follrath.

Bob Gandolfi presented the Paul Harris Award to Denise MacKenzie. The award is presented to members who exemplify the high standards of Rotary International.

PDG Bob announced the approval of a grant by the District to be used for the Literacy Project. One hundred more kits will be assembled for distribution to area hospitals for newborns. The kits are to promote reading and include a book, a Rotary t-shirt and info. Last year they gave 150 kits and the hospitals are asking for more.

The program was presented by Joel Sheltroun on DNR issues with our forests. He expressed his concern about the clear-cutting for forest management. This process is necessary but of concern because of the amount of acres being harvested in Northern Michigan when so many people come up here to enjoy the forests. The DNR continues to buy up property and bulldozes the entrances shut because they do not have funding to manage the properties they have. Also of great concern are the lack of jobs in Michigan and how to entice industry to locate in Michigan. He went on to explain his idea of selling some of the DNR property to promote jobs and the DNR turned that down.

The program for December 14 is the Miss Houghton Lake candidates.

Greeters are Tom Moreau and Kevin Murphy.

50/50 won by Dick, the birthday boy
